An eclectic collection of what's happening at Darien stores and businesses

Around Town

Local attorney Michael Overmann will be giving a probate seminar to other attorneys and accountants. He will be teaching "Oddities and Challenges in Probate Law" at the National Business Institute on April 26, 2010 in Oak Brook.

There is a new face in town at the Darien Branch of the State Bank of Countryside. Pamela Washington joins the Darien team as the new Branch Manager. She comes to us with 10 years experience as the Assistant Branch Manager in Chicago. Welcome to Darien Pamela.

The Easter Bunny is coming to town on Sunday, April 4. The numerous local houses of worship will have special services all of holy week culminating on Easter Sunday. Typically after church families are looking for a special gathering place to feast and celebrate. Look no further than Cornerstone Restaurant on Cass Avenue. From 11am – 3pm they will have an expansive, mouth-watering Easter Brunch that is sure to please any appetite. Carriage Greens Golf Course is also planning to offer an Easter Brunch. So gather up your loved ones and put on your Easter bonnets and enjoy the start of spring.

This free income tax counseling and preparation service is offered to all taxpayers with middle and low income, with special attention dedicated to those 60 and older. Appointments are necessary and can be made by calling the library at 630-887-8760, ext. 239. AARP volunteers are not trained on complicated tax return issues such as: estate income, trust income, limited partnerships, hedge funds, self-employed schedule C returns or rental income filed on schedule E.

The library is hosting AARP's Tax Aide through April 9 on Monday's and Friday's from 9 am - 12 noon.
